Re: CBOE Futures Exchange, LLC Rule Certification
Submission Number CFE-2011-31

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY

Dear Mr. Stawick:

Pursuant to Section 5c(c)(1) of the Commodity Exchange Act, as amended ("Act"), and §40.6(a) of the regulations promulgated by the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC" or "Commission") under the Act, CBOE Futures Exchange, LLC ("CFE" or "Exchange") hereby submits a CFE rule amendment ("Amendment") to: (1) change the last trading day for the CBOE Volatility Index ("VIX") futures contract from the final settlement date to the business day prior to the final settlement date; and (2) no longer permit trading in expiring VIX futures on their final settlement date during a portion of extended trading hours prior to the final settlement. To implement these changes, the Exchange is amending various portions of CFE Rule 1202 which sets forth the contract specifications for VIX futures. The change provided for in this Amendment will apply to all VIX futures contracts currently listed for trading on CFE as well as to all VIX futures contracts first listed for trading on or after the effective date of this Amendment. The Amendment will become effective on January 18, 2012.

Currently, expiring VIX futures are permitted to trade from 7:00 a.m. (Chicago time) to 8:15 a.m. (Chicago time) on their final settlement date.¹ Trading during a portion of extended trading hours for expiring VIX futures on their final settlement date became effective on December 1, 2011 and was in effect during the most recent VIX futures settlement in December.

¹ On all other business days, the trading hours for VIX futures are from 7:00 a.m. Chicago time to 3:15 p.m. Chicago time. The time period from 8:30 a.m. Chicago time until 3:15 p.m. Chicago time is considered regular trading hours for VIX futures, and the time period from 7:00 a.m. Chicago time until the commencement of regular trading hours for VIX futures is considered extended trading hours for VIX futures. Trading in non-expiring VIX futures continues to be permitted during the full extended trading hours and regular trading hours on the final settlement date for expiring VIX futures.

The final settlement date for the VIX futures contract is on the Wednesday that is thirty days prior to the third Friday of the calendar month immediately following the month in which the applicable VIX futures contract expires. If the third Friday of the month subsequent to expiration of the applicable VIX futures contract is a Chicago Board Options Exchange, Incorporated ("CBOE") holiday, the final settlement date for the contract shall be thirty days prior to the CBOE business day immediately preceding that Friday.

The Exchange is making the current filing to evaluate what, if any, impact trading in expiring VIX futures on their final settlement date has on VIX futures settlement and how trading in expiring VIX futures during a portion of extended trading hours on their final settlement date may be used in the future. Accordingly, beginning with the VIX futures January 2012 expiration, the last trading day in expiring VIX futures will be on the business day prior to the final settlement date and trading in expiring VIX futures on their final settlement during a portion of extended trading hours will not be permitted.

CFE believes that the impact of the Amendment will be beneficial to the public and market participants. CFE is not aware of any substantive opposing views to the Amendment. CFE hereby certifies that the Amendment complies with the Act and the regulations thereunder. CFE further certifies that it has posted a notice of pending certification with the Commission and a copy of this submission on CFE's Web site (<http://cfe.cboe.com/aboutcfe/rules.aspx>) concurrent with the filing of this submission with the Commission.

The Amendment, marked to show additions in underlined text and deletions in [bracketed] text, consists of the following:
