

Exhibit A-1 (3): Size

This exhibit has been updated to reflect current volume and membership information.

In 2012, over 1.6 billion contracts were traded on Eurex, making it one of the world's largest derivatives exchanges. By August 1, 2013, Eurex had traded 980 million contracts and US members were 169 million sides of that volume. Approximately 406 members and 7705 traders in 34 countries have access to Eurex products and services via the network. There are 76 Eurex members in the US.
