

Identification of any contracts that have any other relationship with a US-listed contract, i.e., both the FBOT's and the US entity's contract settled to the price of the same third-party constructed index.

None of the Eurex products available for trading through direct market access by US Exchange Participants is related to US-listed contracts in the way described above.